

Galloping Grace Youth Ranch's Summer Camps are filling up FAST! Space is still available for Farm Life Camps: June 18-21st and July 9-12th.

Campers (ages 4-11) will be mini-scientists, learning about gardening, compost, butterflies, pollination, and much more! They'll also learn about goats, chickens, calves, etc. and have the opportunity to help our Junior Leaders feed and care for livestock. Register at www.ggyr.org and feel free to pass this message along to your network of friends, family, employees, clients, and colleagues!

If you're interested and able, we're in need of Adult Volunteers to help serve as the "hands, eyes, and ears" at Summer Camp. Volunteers may find themselves helping to corral little ones into a teaching circle, assisting the Junior Leaders with directing a craft, or even helping a little one to feed a hungry calf. This may not seem much, but it's an invaluable help to our Junior Leaders and GGYR. If interested, contact Becky at 719.464.1140 or email volunteers@ggyr.org.

THANK YOU for helping us bring PURE JOY to hundreds of children!

The poster features a blue header with a smiling sun. On the left is the GGYR logo showing two children in cowboy hats. The main text reads "2018 Summer Camp Ages 4-11". Below this, a green banner says "Just 2 Weeks Open!!" and "Only a few spots left." The dates "June 18-21 & July 9-12" are listed in white. At the bottom left, it says "Register ggyr.org" in white on a blue background. On the right side of the poster is a cartoon illustration of a pink pig with brown spots.
